

Part-time Kitchen Cook

Do you love good food? Are you passionate or even curious about cooking? Do you love to use fresh, seasonal ingredients in creative ways? Are you looking for a positive work environment where everyone is respected and valued? If so, we have the job for you!

What is Procter Camp and Conference Center?

Procter Center is a camp, conference, and retreat center that sits on 1200 acres of beautiful farmland. We have a small farm where we grow food for our kitchen and community. Procter Center's 120-person dining hall serves hundreds of guests a year during conferences, retreats, and summer camps. Our goal is to provide tasty, seasonal foods, utilizing our gardens as often as possible. We want our food to be delicious, creative, and comforting so we can build an environment in which people want to return time and again.

We strive to be good stewards of the earth by composting, recycling, and using efficient menu planning to reduce waste. We strive to keep a positive environment by respecting all persons and by supporting each employee in their role through training, resources, and well-communicated expectations and goals. We strive to provide guests with unmatched hospitality by going above and beyond in our care for their food and their experience at Procter Center.
